[M]ysore Chief Court Judgeship.

1. It is surprising to hear that Mr. T. Parama Siva Iyer's name is thought of for the vacancy to be caused by Mr. E. H. Wallace in the Chief Court. Mr. Parama Siva Iyer's vagaries and his strong likes and dislikes throughout his life cannot be easily passed over. He is the person least fitted for a place on the Chief Court Bench.

2. When Mr. Parama Siva Iyer was just a Law Student and Science Assistant in the Madras Presidency College, he misbehaved with Mr. Mitchel, the then Principal of the Law College. This resulted in Mr. Paramasiva Iyer's removal from the Law Class and from his place as Science Assistant.

3. Mr. Seshadri Iyer who was partial to the Madrees kindly took Mr. Parama Siva Iyer as Science Assistant in the Bangalore Central College. Mr. Parama Siva Iyer's behaviour towards Mr. Cook (the Principal of the Central College) was not much better and his career should have ended as badly as in the Presidency College but for his getting out of it in time by passing the Madras Pleadership examination and by getting himself enrolled as an Advocate of the Mysore Chief Court.

4. Notwithstanding his imperious and erratic behaviour all al[o]ng, it must be said to his credit that Mr. Parama Siva Iyer is endowed with superior brain and that he is blessed with good luck.

5. He was treated with great kindness and consideration by Mr. Rama Chandra Iyer and this gave him a good start. When he was thus practicing, Mr. Seshadri Iyer several times tried to take back Mr. Parama Siva Iyer to Mysore Service as Munsiff. H. H. Sri Chamarajendra Wodayer of revered memory who never thought of overruling the all powerful Seshadri Iyer in anything was firm in opposing his appointment. The late Maharaja Sri Chamarajendra Wodaye merely scored out Mr. Parama Siva Iyer's name and returned the recommendations whenever Mr. Parama Siva Iyer's name was mentioned.

6. This did not last long. Mr. Parama Siva Iyer's good luck did not long forsake him. Mr. P. Chentsal Rao came to the Mysore Province with a bright past; His Highness Sri Chamaraj a Wodayer had a filial regard for this gentleman. Mr. Seshadri Iyer tried to help his Protege through Mr. Chentsal Rao who had high regard for Mr. Parama Siva Iyer's intellect. Consent was given to Mr. Parama Siva Iyer's appointment as an Assistant Commissioner.

7. Mr. Parama Siva Iyer was taken as an Assistant Commissioner though the Maharaja was unwilling to take him even as a Munsiff a short while ago. As an Assistant Commissioner, he brought discredit to Mr. Chentsal Rao by issuing orders in an important matter without informing Mr. Chentsal Rao about it. Mr. Chentsal Rao had already begun to feel sorry for having been instrumental in inducing a good Sovereign as the late Maharaja to appoint such an erratic person as an Assistant Commissioner . Mr. Seshadri Iyer also by this time began to see what a dangerous person Mr. Parama Siva Iyer was. It was now that Mr. Parama Siva Iyer wrote to the Hindu about confidential matters of the Government. It was Mr. Parama Siva Iyer who wrote to the Hindu about the Civil Service results when they were being confidentially communicated to Mr. Seshadri Iyer by Mr. Bhaba who did not know that Mr. Parama Siva Iyer was behind the screen. The publication of the results in the Hindu before they were published officially caused trouble to some poor clerks under the impression that the information that the information leaked through them.

8. Mr. L. Krishna Rao may be in possession of documentary evidence to prove certain indecent acts perpetrated by Mr. Parama Siva Iyer. There are well known scandals connecting him with a Doctor's concubine and several other women of bad repute. It may also be noted here what an important part he played in arranging for a lo loan of a lakh or more rupees tothe late Rangayya Hebbar , & & & & and how Hebbar died broken hearted in the Bangalore Hospital. As Subordinate Judge, as City Magistrate and as a District And S Sessions Judge, Mr. Parama Siva Iyer's work was always pronounced to be very unsatisfactory. Sir Stanley Ismay had the highest contempt for the legal acumen of Mr. Iyer.

9. It is a sound principle of fact that two European Judges ought not to be allowed to preside over our Chief Court. The same principle must hold good with regard to two I Y E R S.-particularly two Iyers who are cousins by relationship.

10. The Bar and the litigant public will feel very sadly disappointed if their interests are not guarded by the appointment of a man unworthy of the post which he may be asked to hold. It will be a scandal if Mr. Parama Siva Iyer is appointed for the post.

Plain facts.
